Who We Are

The Independent Safeguarding Service (ISS) is a not-for-profit Community Interest Company (CIC) established eight years ago by a team of national safeguarding specialists with one shared vision — to transform the landscape of safeguarding across the UK.

We believe every organisation, large or small, should have access to expert safeguarding support. Yet, many schools, EYFS providers, charities and community groups struggle with the cost, complexity, knowledge and time required to stay compliant with ever-changing legislation, statutory guidance and practice expectations.

ISS exists to change that. We provide affordable (often free), high-quality safeguarding solutions designed to make statutory compliance straightforward, accessible and effective.

Our Mission

To maintain a safer society by ensuring every organisation that works with children or adults has access to specialist training, policy tools, and the support they need to meet their safeguarding responsibilities confidently and consistently.

Safeguarding Is Too Important for E-Learning

Complex safeguarding topics — from child exploitation to trauma-informed practice — require real engagement, expert discussion and the ability to ask questions in the moment. Pre-recorded e-learning and tick-box compliance simply cannot deliver this. That's why every ISS training session is delivered live by a recognised specialist in their field, through our LiveOnline platform.

Live, Not Recorded

Every session is delivered live by a specialist — not a pre-recorded video. Safeguarding is too important for passive, tick-box e-learning.

Interact & Participate

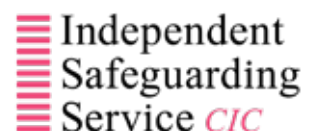

Live training means real-time Q&A, discussion and scenario-based learning — the depth that complex safeguarding topics demand.

National Specialist Trainers

Our courses are delivered by leading experts in their field — from organisations like St Giles Trust and Noations! FGM Centre, Hestia, Papyrus, SWGfL and many more.

CPD Accredited

All training is CPD compliant with certificates of attendance provided, giving you and your staff verifiable evidence of professional development.

“I joined as an individual member to keep my own CPD up to date. The breadth of specialist training available — from county lines to online safety — is outstanding. I’ve recommended ISS to every colleague I know.”
